

Franklin Kristi is a an engineer turned into Industrial Designer, having industry experience of more than 10 years in the fields of Product design, prototyping, model making, creative thinking and photography. Currently working with Indian Institute of Technology Gandhinagar as a Senior Design Associate.

Completed tool and die making engineering education from Indo-German tool room,ahmedabad in year 2003. Joined National Institute of Design, Ahmedabad in year 2005 as a Project Assistant in NID's professional design project department, where in he worked on numerous live project for industry including many national importance project, few are listed below:

- Designing of follow through projectile-Missile casing(land to land) at Indo German Tool Room.
- Designing of casing for communication device for Defence(BHEL)
- Designing of trophy for Small Scale Industry Ministry
- Designing of Trophy for Khadi Vikas Nigam Limited

Also won first prize in worldwide industrial design competition for his Innovation"Flower Power" by German Industrial Designer Association in September 2015.

Interest area: Model making, Prototyping, Photography, Interactive wall art, 3D projection,Creative thinking, Eco-design, Solar energy, Materials and process