

Ravikiran is a photographer and a writer. He has studied Photography Design (Post graduation course) from the National Institute of Design in collaboration with the University of Creative Arts, Farnham. As a photographer, he has contributed with photo-features in in-flight magazines and has authored a fiction with photographs titled 'Camera & Conversations', which has been featured in the Limca Book of Records 2015 as the first fiction with photographs to be written by a mother-son duo. He brought out a set of Postcards with Photographs titled 'Spiritual & Traditional India'. He did his artist residency at Kalakendra, Auroville in 2013 where he screened his Photography Project titled 'Explorations in Darkness'. He has also penned another fiction titled '46+14=06, A Story of a Genius' with his mother. He has taught photography at prestigious schools like the Rajghat Besant School, in Varanasi and has taken sessions on photography at institutes like IIT, Gandhinagar, NID and MICA. He recently talked about combining Photography and Literature at Dhaka Univeristy. His graduation course was BA in English Literature at Loyola College, Chennai.