

Girish Gupta is a founder secretary of National Heritage Volunteer (NHV) based in Gujarat. NHV is an organization not for profit creating training and awareness program for cultural heritage, walking tours, historical monuments & historical salt march.

He has conceptualized and designed

- ❖ A Walk in Gandhi Ashram, Ahmedabad: This is campus walking tour where Mahatma Gandhi stayed & triggered historical salt march.
- ❖ Ahmedabad Monument Walk, Ahmedabad: This walking tour starts from Manekburj – City's foundation stone bastion and passes through the old quarters of city, showcasing monuments constructed by Sultan Ahmedshah - founder of Ahmedabad City.
- ❖ Students' Heritage Walk, Ahmedabad: This walking tour is awakening program for students of Schools and Universities.
- ❖ Contemporary & Traditional Ahmedabad: To understand & experience climatic controlled traditional dwelling system, in-house rainwater harvesting and presence of modern architects like Louis Kahn, Le-Corbusier and Charles Correa This is fusion of walking & auto rickshaw tour.
- ❖ Script writing of Audio Guided Tour for Ahmedabad walled city – First Indian city nominated at UNESCO as world heritage city.
- ❖ Trained auto-rickshaw drivers and railway coolies as brand ambassador of Ahmedabad city.
- ❖ Trained Heritage walk volunteers of Punjab Tourism.
- ❖ Trained Western Region tourist guides from ministry of tourism Government of India.
- ❖ Attended workshop on Heritage & Tourism Management conducted by Ahmedabad University at Spain in September 2013.
- ❖ Walked from Gandhi Ashram, Ahmedabad to Dandi; the historical salt march route.
- ❖ Active volunteer at Gandhi Ashram, Ahmedabad.
- ❖ As a heritage expert lead the awareness program of Walled City – Ahmedabad, Gandhi in Ahmedabad and Jain Heritage Walk initiated by The Times of India & Adani Group.
- ❖ Shared experts view with Radio Mirchi for Rani ki Vav, Patan after declared as World Heritage Monument.